A pictorial representation of Saber Six Foundation's success methodology, Becoming Ever-Better through the intersection of Purpose, Belonging and Well-Being as depicted in the above Venn diagram.

MESSAGE FROM OUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Dear Friends,

These past fourteen months have been a privilege to navigate from a grass root effort -an epic bicycle ride – to greatness -a funded foundation in immediate service to our veterans. The ripple has touched thousands of hearts over thousands of miles already.

Saber Six salutes the early adopters who supported Chris Kolenda's mission to honor the six fallen of the 800 paratroopers serving under his command in Afghanistan 2007-2008. Our work is off to a great start.

Veteran Larry Gonzales approached me after The Fallen Hero Honor Ride in Arlington. He asked me to make sure Chris knew how meaningful it would be if we had an annual reunion because of the impact it was having on all the veterans there. We knew there was an immediate need. We did not expect where this would lead.

As members continue living their lives with PTSN, (Post Traumatic Stress Normal considering their experiences), we strive to bring meaningful programs in a safe community of enrichment and engagement. Our model is different. Many amazing programs address drug and alcohol addiction and worse. Saber Six invests in individual Well-Being BEFORE the drift into hopelessness leading to drug and alcohol addiction and worse.

When we find Purpose, Belonging and Well-Being, we find Joy, Hope and Love to be the best version of ourselves. Our programs are doing just that.

Saber Six is addressing these issues and more as you will see. We look forward to expanding this to everyone. If it can help a soldier, it can help you too.

In Peace and Thanksgiving for you!

Dee Dee Kiesow

Executive Director

IN THE BEGINNING...

Introducing our Founder and inspiration for The Saber Six Foundation. As the 15th Anniversary of COL Chris Kolenda's (U.S. Army, Retired) deployment to Afghanistan in command of TF Saber/1-91 CAV approached, he was struggling to find his Purpose. He had been notified over the years that more of his returning paratroopers had died by suicide than were lost during their fateful deployment. In recognition and acceptance of his own mental health challenges, he was inspired to cycle 1700 miles from Nebraska to Arlington National Cemetery (October 2022) to pay his heartfelt respects to his six fallen paratroopers. He had found a Purpose (the ride), and along the way he found Belonging (reunions with families, supporters and veterans) all resulting in a sense of Well-Being (well, let's face it, riding a bike for 1700 miles will do that!). Saber Six Foundation was born in the wake of his epic cycling quest where he began to ideate an Ever-Better life filled with Purpose, Belonging and Well-Being. The resulting Saber Six Foundation is a new kind of organization, the only one to get in front of the soldier suicide crisis by providing programs that inspire Ever-Better lives by creating Purpose, Belonging and Well-Being. Chris is currently serving Saber Six Foundation as the President of the Board of Directors, he actively participates in long-range planning, leads monthly stable calls with surviving veterans, and frequents Saber Six Foundation events.

“You can never fully prepare for a situation like that: Where your only choice is, I ask somebody to sacrifice themselves so that the rest of us can have a chance...to take the fight to the enemy...You can never fully prepare for that kind of choice knowing that either you are going to put yourself in a situation you might not walk away from or ask someone else to.”

- Col. Christopher D. Kolenda (Ret)

Press Excerpt: “In 2007, U.S. Army Col. Chris Kolenda commanded a unit of 800 paratroopers in Afghanistan. During their deployment, six of those troopers were killed in action. As the 15th anniversary approached, Kolenda wanted to do something to honor their memory. He decided to bike 1,700 miles from Spalding, Nebraska, to Arlington National Cemetery visiting the graves and loved ones of the fallen soldiers. Kolenda’s Fallen Hero Honor Ride raised money for his charity, the Saber Six Foundation, which supports members of Kolenda’s unit and their families with post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD) and other combat-related difficulties.” From: <https://sabersixfoundation.com/press-coverage/aarp-colonel-makes-powerful-honor-ride-to-his-soldiers-graves/>

SIX HEROES HONORED

★Spaulding, Nebraska: PFC Chris Pfeifer, an infantryman from Nebraska, was reliable and known to always do the right thing. In late August 2007, Chris was shot during a firefight while serving in Afghanistan. After a courageous month-long battle, Chris died from his injuries. Two days later, his daughter was born. She never met her Dad.

★Carroll, Iowa: Sergeant Adrian Hike was the gunner in a tactical vehicle while serving in Afghanistan. Adrian was a champion who inspired those around him with his resilience. On November 12, 2007, he was killed in an explosion when his vehicle was hit by an improvised explosive device (IED).

★Elwood, Illinois: Specialist Jacob Lowell was a paratrooper, serving in Afghanistan in 2007. When Jacob's patrol came under fire on June 2, 2007, he was almost instantly hit, but continued providing life-saving fire support instead of receiving medical attention.

★Hall Indiana: Staff Sergeant Ryan Fritsche was known to be an exceptionally professional and dedicated leader who took unwavering care of his soldiers. On July 27, 2007, he led his soldiers into the mountains of Afghanistan and was shot and killed in action.

★Minersville, Pennsylvania: Captain Dave Boris was a fearless leader who consistently set the right example for others. He always led from the front and inspired his troops to be their best in the toughest situations.

★Arlington National Cemetery, Arlington, Virginia: Major Tom Bostick was an exceptional, courageous leader who set the example for others to follow. On July 27, 2007, Tom sacrificed his life, so his team could take the fight to the enemy in the unit's largest battle. Tom Bostick was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross – the second highest award for valor.

2022/2023 ANNUAL REPORT

Chris is joined along the way at each grave by community leaders and family members of the fallen. The journey is covered by numerous local and national news outlets including CNN, CBS and AARP. Hundreds of Americans come out to wish him well. We acknowledge and appreciate videographers and sag van assistants, Seth Langbauer and Dominic Oakes, who joined Chris along the way to ensure his safety and record the event.

October 22, 2022, Mission complete at Arlington National Cemetery. Special thanks to Jake Tapper, CNN Journalist and American Author who spotlighted Chris' arrival in Washington, D.C. with a news segment on CNN. Jake Tapper wrote The Outpost, featuring TF Saber/1-91 CAV and their tremendous sacrifice. Members of TF-Saber and 1-91 CAV met Chris at Tom Bostick's grave and attended a dinner together that afternoon.

OUR SIGNATURE PROGRAMS:

"To find that new purpose and belonging is vital. Had I not found that – I wouldn't be here today."

- COL (U.S. Army, Ret) Chris Kolenda

We began 2023 with a lineup of courses to build capacity and create Purpose, Belonging and Well-Being. For various reasons, the Investment concluded in June of 2023.

Courses included:

- Fitness Coaching with Chuck Kyle
- Take Back your Emotional Health with Dr. Mark Goulston
- Talent and Career Accelerator with the Talent Team
- Leading from the Middle with Jeff Marquez
- Trauma Informed Yoga with Aly Spencer

The intent of the programs was well received but the execution, costly. We learned, with the help of the late Dr. Mark Goulston, that there were measures we could take in house that would better serve our community. Thus was born the idea for Saber Six Foundation's Signature Programs.

THE BIRTH OF THE 22- DAY TRIGGER MASTERY CHALLENGE

Our first Signature Program was designed in partnership with Dr. Mark Goulston, PHD, Psychiatrist, author, former FBI Hostage negotiation trainer, and an expert advisor in effective communication. The 22-Day Trigger Mastery Challenge gives the user a tangible process, it helps the individual to control the triggers that can result in outbursts, anger and general unhappiness. Our bracelet can be worn discreetly to remind you that you are able to identify your triggers and you have the power to control them. Then, to positively redirect your emotional state so that you and the people you love can breathe easier. Over 100 bracelets are now in use.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING AFTER TRYING THE 22-DAY TRIGGER MASTERY CHALLENGE:

“Thank you so much for this program! It absolutely made it possible for me to be a more positive person with less stress and anxiety”

“It’s all good and getting better everyday, one day at a time. This challenge and regular therapy are helping me cope with everyday stressors and bouts of anxiety. Now having started a healthy mind, it’s time to move on to a healthy body”

I never realized how often I would be angry and the emotional cost to my well-being and the people I love the most. Having a process to manage my responses has been a game changer for me.”

THE EVER-BETTER GROWTH SYSTEM (SIGNATURE PROGRAM #2)

Inspired by the Saber Six Success Model (see page 1), the idea of the Ever-Better Personal Growth System took root. The full program is under development, however, the beta program is already showing tremendous results.

WHAT IT IS:

Designed by veterans for veterans. This multifaceted program partners with individuals on a personal level to define Purpose, Belonging and Well-Being. This 10-module program supports lifestyle change through videos, one on one support, personalized life planning strategies in a safe community. Training is encapsulated in 30 minute training modules with personal reflection and action steps.

EXPECTED OUTCOMES INCLUDE:

Replacing old stories with a tactical plan to turn new dreams into reality. Changing lifestyle with the right people to get you beyond the finish line and forward. The right Community to help you make the journey.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING:

“After struggling with PTSD, depression, attempting to Band-Aid with therapy and drugs, I never felt I could experience pure joy without underlying sadness. I have emerged as a new being with joy and looking forward to a new future. I didn’t know there were steps to such a process of healing and finding a new self.”

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

April 2023 - Specialized Bicycle Components asks Chris and Dee Dee to attend their annual Levi Leipheimer Cycling event in Windsor, California. While there, they join Olympian and Tour-de-France professional cyclist Levi Leipheimer for dinner. The next day the pair are met by Saber Six Members Chase Jorgensen and James Stevenson. James joined in on a 24-mile bike ride. Saber Six Foundation receives recognition from Congressman Mike Thompson for its dedication and work with veterans. Many contacts are made in the two days. Chris would be invited back later in the year for an annual community event.

OUR VETERANS

Monthly Stable Calls - Our monthly stable calls offer a safe and collaborative environment for our veterans to meet face to face, to check in and offer support and friendship. Some meet-ups are joined by various experts to share knowledge and build veteran capacity. All calls provide an opportunity for veterans to state their gratitude for the opportunity to be with those who once had their back, who still have your back, and understand everything. This has become a lifeline of great importance to our TF SABER and 1-91 CAV veterans.

“Being a part of the Saber Six Foundation has brought back my military family and knowing that I am helping support my family gives me a sense of belonging that I’ve been longing for since losing my husband”

- Karen Pfeifer, Gold Star Wife and Mother (widow of PFC Chris Pfeifer)

“...we’re all here because of each other. As such, we have an obligation to one another to ensure that we all at least have the opportunities to live a more fulfilling life because of the support we fostered between us with the most ancient and sacred of commitments. So let’s all hang out on the next Stable Call. It’s a lot easier to get there than the early ride to Fiddler’s Green.”

-Mullah Snow

Annual Reunion - Pedals and Parachutes
Reunion, 10-12 November 2023 Petaluma, CA.
Saber Six Foundation was joined by numerous TF Saber unit members as well as thousands in the Petaluma community.

Welcome Dinner - Karen Pfeifer (pictured in photo right in yellow jacket) gave her debut speech to a crowd at the welcome dinner on Friday evening. It was both touching and very professionally delivered.

The Pedals and Parachutes Veterans Day Benefit Bike Ride and Parade, was supported with a kickoff by California Congressman Mike Thompson (173rd Airborne, Vietnam). Olympic Cyclist Alison Tetrick supported us in recruiting cyclists; she attended our dinner the previous night and joined us during and after the ride. Specialized Bicycle Components provided water bottles, t-shirts and a dozen bicycles for Saber Six Veterans. Assos, Switzerland donated branded bags for riders and two riding outfits.

Chris & Dee Dee surrounded by TF Saber veterans during the parade.

The Petaluma Veterans Day Parade committee honored Chris by inviting him to serve as Grand Marshal followed by our veterans who handed out our 22- Day Mastery Challenge bracelets. Chris received recognition in Walnut Park from the Mayor of Petaluma and the townspeople who would later line up to personally thank the members of Task Force Saber. Between 25 - 30 thousand people attended the parade.

Torches Restaurant in Petaluma. Dee Dee Kiesow and Christina Krych conducted a mini live auction and awarded two trips to Mexico at our free drawing.

Saber Six weekend attendees included: Nick Armstrong, Lee Knight, James Stevenson, Joel Herman, John Page, Christina Krych, Marouf Sharifi, Chris Kolenda, Greg Kaplan, Karen Pfeifer and Dee Dee Kiesow.

Sunday morning the team gathered at Nor-Cal Skydiving with Tyler Wareham. Tandem skydivers were Karen Pfeifer, Nick Armstrong, and Steve Glavan.

“I served with Task Force Saber from 2007-2008 and I think it's important to continue the sense of community that we had as a unit those 15 months.”

- Nick Armstrong, TF Saber Veteran (left in photo)

“I relied on this leadership through my deployment and my time in the military. To know they still have my six in life after the military and to continue to help me improve in areas of my life that I still need to work on. It just means a lot to me and to know that my leadership is still there for me 15 years later.”

- James Stevenson, TF Saber Veteran (right in photo)

“That’s one of the things that’s so important to me with Saber Six is that we are creating programs that help soldiers transition into normal life and create Ever-Better lives.”

FINANCIALS FOR 2023

2023 year end finds Saber Six Foundation in a good financial position with solid plans for 2024 expansion of programs and further events to benefit TF Saber veterans and their families in creating Ever-Better lives full of Purpose, Belonging and Well-Being.

LOOKING FORWARD TO 2024

UPCOMING PROJECTS:

Technology Upgrade- In the coming months videos, workbooks and training for the Saber Six Success Model will become fully digitized into 10 modules. Digitization allows for online sales to expanded beneficiaries of the Ever-Better Personal Growth System to to financially support investments into vital veteran programming.

Saber Challenge Adventure Program- Chattanooga, TN. (April 19-22, 2024) Building Purpose, Belonging and Well-Being exclusively for TF Saber members or family members who have completed the 22-Day Mastery Challenge and the Ever Better Program. Includes national park entry, meals, white water rafting, cooking classes, battlefield leadership seminar, and other events.

Saber Six Annual Fundraising Gala- Washington DC, (May 9, 2024) Army Navy Club. Details to follow.

Saber Six Reunion- Central US Veterans Day celebration 2024 - save the date! More details to follow.

“Everybody goes through their own challenges and that’s just normal. We all have them. Purpose, Belonging and Well-Being is the way you get through that.”

- COL Chris Kolenda, Saber Six Foundation Founder and Board Member
